

War or no war, the public is best served by diverse, independent media. Lifting the cross-ownership ban is a terrible idea.